REPORT ON MARTYRS' DAY CELEBRATION

The Government Polytechnic College, Vanavasi, observed Martyrs' Day on 30th January 2025 with solemnity and respect. The event commemorated the death anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, honoring his contributions to India's Independence and his teachings of truth, non-violence and equality. The program was organized by Mr. V. MAHALINGAM, Lecturer in Chemistry / NSS Co- Ordinator and Mr. M. VADIVEL, Lecturer in Mathematics / NSS Co-Ordinator.

MARTYRS' DAY

Martyrs' Day, also known as Shaheed Diwas, is observed annually in India to honor the sacrifices of those who laid down their lives for the country's independence. By observing this day, the nation pays tribute to its brave martyrs and remembers their dedication to the cause of independence.

The Vice-Principal of our college Dr. S. MURUGESAN delivered an inspiring speech about the significance of the day. A two minute silence was observed at 11.00 A.M to pay homage to the martyrs who sacrificed their lives for the nation.

ABOLITION OF UNTOUCHABILITY PLEDGE

Following the tribute to the martyrs, the event transitioned to a pledge-taking ceremony focused on abolishing untouchability. The pledge was led by Mr. D. THANGAMANI, Lecturer in Physics, reaffirming the college community's commitment to uphold the principles of equality, fraternity and dignity for all. The pledge emphasized eradicating social discrimination and fostering harmony among all sections of society. All students and staff participated in a pledge to abolish untouchability and work towards creating a discrimination-free society.

The event successfully instilled a sense of patriotism, respect for human dignity and commitment to social justice among the students. It served as a reminder of the sacrifices made by our martyrs and the importance of working together to build a society free from discrimination.
